

Now we are 10!

This 38th edition of the Petuarium Press marks its 10th anniversary. To celebrate we are launching a new, updated design. Started in 1999 by Tony Barker, topics covered in the first issue included Railtrack's £1 million redevelopment of Brough Station, the Petuarium Player's upcoming season and the launch of the Brough Majorettes.

Tony said: "I remember starting out as a newcomer to the village and thinking that Brough needed a newspaper to report on achievements and successes. There was nothing around to inform residents. It's been a fascinating contemporary history of a growing area."

Current editors Justine and Duncan McMillan took over from Tony in summer 2007 when Tony stepped down due to other work commitments.

Doug's boots are made for walking

Doug Kirk of Elloughton undertook the challenge of his life in September when he walked the Wolds Way. No easy task when you realise that just seven months ago, almost to the day, Doug underwent a kidney transplant.

Doug 38, who is married with two young children, had a condition when he was younger and as a result his kidneys have been deteriorating for the last 20 years. In December last year he reached a point where he faced dialysis for the rest of his life unless a donor was found. Having only been on the waiting list for a transplant since February 2008, Doug was lucky enough to receive the good news that a donor had been found. The transplant was performed the very next day.

Since then Doug has gone from strength to strength, taking on this challenge to raise awareness of the importance of being an organ donor. The 80 mile trek along the Wolds Way took five days to complete. Doug was joined by Ian Jackson from Leeds, the recipient of the other kidney from the same donor, together with their family and friends.

Organ transplants are the only hope for people with organ failure, yet there is a critical shortage of organs available. People wishing to become donors must currently register, but the shortage could be relieved if the process was changed to an 'opt out' rather than an 'opt in' scheme. Many thousands of people are willing for their organs to be used when they die but never get round to registering. You can register at www.organdonation.nhs.uk, call 0300 123 23 23 or text SAVE to 84118. It's simple.

All money raised by Doug and his family and friends will go to The National Kidney Federation. If you would like to make a donation Doug (pictured below) has set up a web page at www.justgiving.com/Doug-Kirk.

Brothers put best pedal forward for Cancer Research

Dan and Adam Jordan of Elloughton completed their charity bike ride in aid of Yorkshire Cancer Research in September. The 75 mile trip to Whitby took them and 12 other cyclists about four and a half hours to get there and only four hours to get back the next day. They were met by family and friends on a gloriously sunny afternoon in Whitby where they drank a glass of bubbly in memory of their dad Keith Jordan, whom they lost to cancer earlier this year. It was an emotional day for all those involved. The team managed to raise £1500 for the Cancer charity. The brothers plan to make the ride an annual event.

Petuaria Centre Open Day

The Petuaria Centre held a 'Community Day' in August to raise awareness of the role of the centre.

The event was well attended by residents. Services represented included the Crime Prevention Bus, the Connexions Bus, local PCSOs, Humberside Fire & Rescue, the Parish Council and the Petuaria Press.

There were also stands representing groups who use the Community Centre and the Village Hall like Slimming World, Weight Watchers and

A series of work parties has been organised to restore the churchyard grounds at St. Mary's in Elloughton.

The most recent included 50 volunteers including local Brownies, who restored flower beds, replanted daffodils and roses and levelled other areas. Previously they have removed old fencing and uncovered and restored areas of the grounds that had become very overgrown. Helpers were supported by a 'pit crew' of ladies who provided a supply of teas and cakes for the busy volunteers.

The next work party is due to take place between 8.30am and 12 noon on Saturday 14th November. If you would like to get involved give Paul Shepherd a ring on 07715 480714.

Fund raiser is sensational success!

Back in the Spring we reported on little Mia Silvey from Welton who has severe physical and learning disabilities. Mum Carly was the driving force behind a fund raising evening held at the KC stadium in March which raised a whopping £17,000. Of this £5,000 came from a single anonymous donation.

As a result the Silveys have been able to provide Mia with a fabulous sensory room. Furnished with bubble tubes, projected images, CD player, fluorescent lights and a multitude of specially made toys, the room provides an environment to stimulate her brain and senses. The outstanding success of Carly's fundraising has meant that they have also been able to convert their garden from the mud patch that it was to an outdoor haven for Mia. Best of all Mia now has a special needs swing which supports her properly and a small heated spa pool for her hydrotherapy sessions.

To find out more or to make a donation towards continued help and support that Mia will need as she grows please go to www.themiasfund.co.uk.

Elloughton-cum-Brough Scarecrow Festival went ahead again this year. It was well supported by both villages who turned out on one of the most glorious days this Summer.

Nearly £1000 was raised for a number of charities, including The Down's Syndrome Association, Girlguiding UK, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation International and The Baby Unit at HRI. The event was organised by Josie Alexander and Alicia Woodward.

This Summer has seen our Lifestyle teams busy again with a range of projects and activities to benefit the local community. Here are just a few of them...

Sugar Rush Lifestyle team have been raising awareness of Type 1 Diabetes throughout the summer holidays. Type 1 Diabetes usually occurs in children and people under 40. Sugar Rush handed out leaflets about the condition and about healthy eating at The Busy Bees Nursery and the Health Centre. They also held a pirate-themed coffee morning at The United Reformed Church in Elloughton. In total they raised over £800 for the Diabetes Support Group.

L-R: Catherine Banks, Emily Johnson, Shayma Fleet, with Laura Banks the team's mascot who has Type 1 Diabetes and Jessica Carr.

The Fearless Three Lifestyle team raised money for Brough Voluntary Action Group, during the holidays by doing odd jobs such as washing cars.

The Groovy Girls raised money for South Cave Animal Welfare to help with the cost of housing the record number of stray cats and kittens brought in this year. Katy Catchpole, Emily Rivers and Olivia Williams (not pictured) held a book sale, a coffee morning and did some bag packing amongst other things.

Brave lifestyle teams Fearless Three, Peace Out and Sugar Rush turned out in the pouring rain to help with a graffiti clean up and litter pick, together with PC Richard Beeforth, PCSO Jess Watts and Councillor Pat Smith. Morrisons and Sainsbury's local contributed drinks and crisps for the hard working youngsters.

Team members Rosie Wareham, Lucy Dillon and Ben Holford.

The Red Hot Chilli Tigers held a bun sale to raise money towards their project entitled "Bat To Conservation". They used the money raised to produce information leaflets about bats and to provide bat boxes in places such as the scout hut and the schools.

Lifestyle team the Superstars have been busy during the holidays raising money for Hull Animal Welfare. They held a coffee morning and sold ice lollies in the park and also held a dance show and clarinet concert. Altogether they managed to raise £178, as well as collecting teddies to donate to Dove House Hospice.

Right: Isobel Pearson, Hannah Spencer, Alice O'Dwyer and Natalya Botham.

L-R: Stevie Akkrill hands a leaflet to Brough resident Pat Hasnip, with team mates Ella Brookfield and Millie Jackson and Hull KR player Shaun Briscoe who is backing the girls campaign.

The Marvellous Monkeys have been raising awareness of the harm that dog fouling creates. The Lifestyle team are reminding people that it can cause all sorts of nasty diseases like Parvovirus, E-Coli, Salmonellosis, Roundworm, Tapeworm and Toxocara Canis by handing out leaflets.

They would also like to remind dog owners of the pointlessness of picking up dog waste and bagging it, but then leaving it hanging on gateposts etc. If the bags are not put in dog waste bins they cannot be disposed of properly. They are left smelling and the plastic bag will not decompose.

Dog fouling has become a big issue in the village as we have reported before. The Petuarria Press and the Marvellous Monkeys would like to remind people why they should dispose of dog waste properly.

1. People will stand in it.
2. It smells!
3. It looks horrible, especially on public footpaths.
4. It can ruin your shoes.
5. It trails into your house/car and ruins your carpets.
6. Other dogs step in it and eat it, making them ill.
7. You contract diseases from it.
8. If left in play areas it spoils children's fun.
9. Animal waste can be a contributor to storm water pollution.
10. East Riding of Yorkshire Council may impose a fine if you are caught.

A: Spain. B: Cuba. C: France.

POLICE REPORT

Police are warning residents to think about security of their garden sheds and garages after a number of burglaries in the area. Never leave a shed or garage unlocked – tools are valuable and can be used for housebreaking. Fit strong padlocks and ensure the doors are solid enough not to be kicked in. Consider painting or engraving your post code onto items like lawnmowers, strimmers and power tools to make them less attractive to a thief. If they are stolen this helps to trace the owner at a later date. Don't leave garden tools and ladders lying around in the garden as they can be used to break into your house. For crime prevention information call PCSO Jess Watts on 0845 6060222.

Not just for the boys Hoole runs home again!

South Cave Ladies football team who are part of the South Cave Juniors group kicked off the season with brand new kits sponsored by Skipton Building Society. A large number of the team hail from Elloughton or Brough and practice regularly at Blackburns and South Hunsley. They are always on the lookout for new talent, so if you think you've got what it takes to join the team call Andy Green on 07786 724813.

Winner Phil Hoole sprints to the finish.

This year's Elloughton 10k was well attended even though the sun was out in full force. Phil Hoole finished the race in 31.47 minutes, marginally slower than his win last year of 31.36 minutes. Katie Clark of Kingston-upon-Hull AC was the first woman home in just 37.46 minutes, third fastest female time over the course.

With Christmas on the horizon The Picture Box on Station Road in Brough is offering one lucky reader a free portrait sitting with 7" x 5" print. For a chance to win just answer the question: When was the Petuarium Press first launched?

L-R: Club secretary Steve Weatherall, with sponsors Nick Stoker, Chris Toohie, Rich Abbey and treasurer Nathen Reuben.

New season, new sponsors

Blackburn Leisure's football teams have all secured new sponsorship this season which sees them in smart new kits.
