Green fingered gardener Carl Gayton was very pleased to receive the Petuaria Press shield for Front Garden Of The Year from Councillor Tony Galbraith.

Mr Gayton of Cavendish Park whose garden ornaments include a mini penny farthing and water pump, said; "My parents, Maureen and Derek Gayton won this in 2005 so we are the first father and son to win the award".

Congratulations to the Elloughton-cum-Brough In Bloom team who took a Silver Gilt award in this year's Yorkshire In Bloom competition. A big thank you goes to all residents who helped.

Amy's trip of a lifetime

Brough girl Amy Pearson recently enjoyed the trip of a lifetime with the Girl Guides. In July she went to India with nine other guides from troops in East Yorkshire.

After a week of travelling and sight-seeing they spent three weeks working in the 'City of Child' centre situated about 40km out of the city of Pune in a village called Kaswardi Villlage. Whilst they were there they painted a large mural on the walls in a chapel at the centre. They also spent time with children and orphans at the centre, helping them with school work and playing.

Elloughton-cum-Brough guide Amy Pearson (L) with other guides on their trip to India.

Amy really enjoyed the experience and was very happy that she took the opportunity to go. She said; "Although it was a lot of hard work I'm glad I managed to raise the money needed to go on this trip of a lifetime. It was an experience I'll never forget".

Sun shines for scarecrows

Brough and Elloughton's 3rd Annual Scarecrow Festival went ahead on 24th July with great success. Luckily the sun shone and people were out in their hundreds all day.

As well as the usual colourful display of scarecrows around the village there was a stilt walker, a magician and a steam engine. There were also various side stalls and refreshments along the route.

The overall winner of most popular scarecrow was Wall-E from the Lambourne family. The best school Scarecrow was won by Elloughton School.

Dirty dog owners are still a nuisance

Residents from Elloughton and Brough are still expressing concerns over the problem of dog fouling. The Parish Council has asked for more help from the East Riding of Yorkshire Council Dog Wardens but budgets are limited.

Dog owners are reminded that failing to clean up after their dogs is a prosecutable offence.

New look Village Hall

The Village Hall has undergone extensive refurbishment and improvements both externally and inside. The total cost of the project was £34,000 and was supported by grants from WREN (which redistributes landfill and recycling taxes), Lottery funded Awards for All, Elloughton-cum-Brough Parish Council, Atkinson Trust and Elloughton Brough Village Hall Funds.

Elloughton pupils get into Africa

An open evening at Elloughton School showcased the school's year long "Into Africa" theme. The project celebrated the work of Elloughton-born Barnabas Shaw who was the first Methodist missionary to visit South Africa.

Pupils' work was displayed at the open evening when the whole school came together for a parade of animals, drumming, song and dance. Refreshments were South African food and drink. One child said of the evening; "This is the best day ever – so far!"

Goodbye teachers!

Much loved teachers June Dennis and Dianne Davidson have retired from Brough School. Mrs. Dennis has worked at the school for over 20 years while Mrs. Davidson has been there for 15 years. They are pictured here at a special assembly and presentation held to say farewell to them. Staff and pupils wish them a long and happy retirement.

It has been a busy Summer for our village youngsters. Teams from the local schools have been working flat out on a variety of community and charity projects as part of Lifestyle 2010, an initiative by Humberside Police. Some of the teams have been in touch to tell us about their achievements. If any other teams would like a mention then drop us a line at news@petuariapress.co.uk. We will publish an update in the January edition of Petuarium.

The Connections raised money for both Welton Cricket Club and St Helens Church. Freddie and Poppy Capes held a toy sale and handed out leaflets promoting WCC Fun Day. They also purchased filing equipment to help sort the hymn sheets at St Helens.

The Galaxy Lifestyle team have been raising money for Help For Heroes. They held a bun sale, a toy sale, did bag packing and gave out cakes in return for donations from Reckitt Benckiser who doubled up the money they raised from this.

The Blood Brothers are campaigning for crash barriers along the A63 between Welton and South Hunsley. They have held various events like a penalty shoot out, a bun sale and a sponsored bike ride. Pictured are Ellis Howard, Thomas Hartevelde, Harry Hornbrook and Dominic Lyons with members of the Brough fire crew who are supporting the campaign.

Team Jaguar are Oliver Atkinson, Lizzy Rainforth, Gabby Whittle and Jake Martindale (not pictured) who have raised money for Cancer Research after teacher Mrs Kennedy from Elloughton School sadly passed away earlier this year.

The team had a stall at the Scarecrow Festival and at Lifestyle team Wonky Wombat's Fun Day and Treasure Hunt. They have also litter picked and planned walking routes around the village, handing out leaflets to show route details.

The Green Girls have been giving Hull Animal Welfare a helping hand during the holiday by collecting old blankets, towels and bedding for the animals. They have also received donation of pet food. Amy Bryan from Hull Animal Welfare was over the moon with the donations. The team are also promoting awareness of green issues, in particular recycling in the community.

The Fab 4 took part in a litter pick at their local playground in Welton as part of their summer challenge. Pictured are Jade Featherstone, Jack Brothwell, Charlie Dixon, Jessica Richards with Sarah Smith, Councillor Pat Smith, PC Richard Beeforth and Pam Beeforth.

The Wonky Wombats are campaigning for safer roads near local schools after a friend was knocked over. The team have been raising awareness about the parking problems at pick up and drop off times. These have become so bad that a police presence has been required outside Brough School and traffic cones have been deployed at Elloughton. They want to introduce considerate parking areas and erect signs to encourage drivers to think about the safety of children and other pedestrians. Harry Taylor, George Mayson, Jacob Hill and Ryan Abba organised a Fun Day and Treasure Hunt which involved other Lifestyle projects. They have carried out other fund-raising activities, including gardening and recycling for residents and a countryside hike.

Brough Beauties Emily Briggs, Alice Thane and Lydia Hillerby have been serving tea, coffee and homemade buns at Brough Voluntary Action on Wednesday afternoons. They also helped out at Brough Methodist Church Garden Party and have been campaigning against litter with posters around the village and an organised litter pick.

POLICE REPORT

Humberside Police have seen the usual seasonal increase in burglaries across the county. Unlocked doors and open windows grant thieves easy access to homes, accounting for nearly half of all burglaries.

PC Richard Beeforth of the East Riding Safe Communities Team said; "Don't become a victim of this type of crime. If you take the basic crime prevention measures you can reduce the risk of being targeted by burglars."

Ensure all doors and windows are locked. Do not leave ladders or garden tools lying around outside. A thief may use these to gain entry.

Fun days mean funds raised

The Ferry Inn, the Red Hawk and Welton Cricket Club all held fun days over August Bank Holiday weekend. The Ferry inn raised £368 for the NSPCC. the Red Hawk raised over £900 for Help For Heroes.

Grudge match makes £400 for hospice

After three years of trying, linedance instructor Nik Smith has beaten his nemesis Mike Morland in their annual charity squash match.

Mike presented Nik with a trophy and commended him for his sportsmanship and determination. Supporters from Nik's linedancing class cheered them along. The pair raised £400 for Dove House Hospice.

The 21st anniversary of the Trans Pennine Trail from Hornsea to Liverpool was celebrated with a baton relay, between walkers and cyclists passing through Brough.

A team of walkers from Haltemprice Walking for Health set out with the baton from the Humber Bridge. At Brough Railway Station it was handed over to a team of cyclists who are all Volunteer Rangers on the Trans Pennine Trail. The cyclists carried the baton to its next destination at Selby from where it continued on its journey.
