

New flood defences prove their worth

Unusual weather conditions and an extremely high spring tide on 5th December put Brough at the greatest risk of tidal flooding since 1953.

Residents whose homes are in the flood plain were notified that morning and at 5pm were put on standby to be evacuated. The Village Hall and Petuaria Centre were opened up to use as respite centres.

Staff at BAE Systems ensured the sluice at Elloughton Clough was closed. Water levels in the Humber reached the coping stones of the flood wall at Brough Haven around 8pm. Officers from the Environment Agency and East Riding of Yorkshire Council were on hand to monitor the situation. Environment Agency Flood Warden and Town Councillor Sue Duckles was instrumental in mobilising local flood wardens and ensuring flood gates were closed in time.

In the event defences held and residents' homes were unaffected. However low lying fields around Welton Waters and parts of the airfield were inundated. For information on becoming a flood warden call 665600.

Dog mess remains a sticky issue...

The Town Council's initiative to stick 'There's no such thing as the Dog Poo Fairy' stickers on local litter bins has been continued by residents and the Community Led Planning Group. The aim of the stickers is to encourage people to pick up after their dogs but unfortunately someone keeps removing them. If you want to help you can send for free stickers and posters from www.keepbritaintidy.org or stickers can be obtained from the Town Council office on Skillings Lane.

The Community Led Planning group reports that as dark winter evenings draw in the incidence of dog fouling in areas where children walk and play has risen. Dog fouling is not only unpleasant, it is dangerous. The biggest threat to health from dog excrement is toxocariasis, an infection of the roundworm toxocara canis. If eggs of the parasite are swallowed or absorbed through a cut or scratch it may result in infection lasting from six to 24 months. Symptoms include eye disorders, vague ache, dizziness, nausea, asthma and, in extremely rare cases, seizures/fits. Eggs are often ingested when passed to the mouth by the hands, and hence it commonly affects children under five, but we can all be infected – particularly sports people utilising green open areas.

Regulations state specifically, that being unaware that the dog has fouled, or not having a suitable means of removing the faeces is not a reasonable excuse for failing to clean up after your dog. It is the responsibility of the dog owner or the person in charge of the dog to clear up any dog foul left by their dog. If you fail to clean up after your dog you can be issued with a Fixed Penalty Notice, or if the case goes to court a fine of up to £1000.

In Bloom calendar by budding young artists

The 2014 In Bloom calendar entitled Kids Work features artwork by Brough and Elloughton school children. Pictures were submitted from both schools and six winners were chosen from each.

As well as having their work published, the young artists were presented with a goody bag containing one of the calendars, a sketch pad and some crayons. You can purchase calendars from Elloughton News, Elloughton Post Office Half Moon, Café Indulge, Zoe's Salon, Quick & Clarke and the doctors' surgery.

Holly has haircut for charity

Eleven year old Holly Wilson who attends Brough Primary School had a hair-raising experience when she decided to cut her long blonde hair to donate to the Little Princess Trust.

The trust provides real-hair wigs, free of charge to boys and girls that have lost their own hair through cancer treatment and other illnesses.

Holly heard that a relative was doing this and decided it was something she wanted to do. So far Holly has raised £330 for the charity as well as donating a seven inch tress of her hair.

Holly Wilson proudly holds up the tress of her hair which was cut free of charge by Zoe Thompson of Zoe's Salon on Skillings Lane, Brough.

Christmas Tree Festival

The Town Council held its first Christmas Tree Festival at The Village Hall on 7th December. Groups from local schools and youth groups decorated the trees on display. Choirs from Elloughton School and Brough School sang carols and the Rotary Club's Christmas sleigh was in attendance. Hot food was available and even Santa Claus himself made an appearance. See our special supplement for photographs and sponsors' details.

Annual Art Exhibition

Elloughton-cum-Brough Town Council's annual Art and Photography exhibition was as popular as ever last year with over 100 pieces of work entered. There was a great turnout for the opening evening and a wide variety of subject matter of submissions which captivated visitors. Make sure you check out our special supplement for details of winners of the popular vote and exhibition sponsors.

NEWS·IN·BRIEF

East Riding of Yorkshire Council held a meeting in December for potential contractors and suppliers interested in the phase 2 development of the proposed Brough Relief Road. Work will go to tender in January 2014 and assuming costs are as expected work will commence in May for approximately nine months. Phase 2 will see construction of a road from the Myrtle Way/ Moor Road Roundabout over the railway lines, with the construction of a bridge, and carriageway from the south to a new roundabout as well as shared footway/cycleway and drainage and lighting works. The meeting took place at Blackburn Social Club.

The village of Elloughton features in the book East Yorkshire Village Visits written by Martin Limon and published by Fonthill Media. The book is a collection of thirty studies of some of the East Riding's most interesting communities and the events that shaped them. East Yorkshire Village Visits can be purchased from local book sellers and online suppliers.

Hull & District Anglers' Association is offering reduced rates for new members. Benefits include unlimited fishing for a small annual fee at the club's fisheries, which include a complex of six ponds adjacent to Welton Waters. The club also runs regular events and junior coaching days on the Brough complex. For more information contact Matt Ward on 07411 003371 or visit the club's website at www.hdaafishing.co.uk.

Brough author Kelly Cairns' first book Sophie and Crystal Carter and the Unexpected Secret is now available online as an ebook. Kelly first published her story for children in 2005 after spending four years writing. She has sold several hundred printed copies which she designed and illustrated herself. Kelly is now in the process of writing a sequel. You can find out more about her work on her website www.kacairns.co.uk.

Elloughton Private Nursery with Little Acorns celebrated its 25th anniversary in September. The nursery hosted a party at Brantingham Park home of Hull Ionians. The nursery first started at the original clubhouse before moving to the new site, followed by its own premises on Main Street, Elloughton. The nursery still runs as a family owned business.

Trees and wildflowers

The Wolds & Riverbank Countryside Society recently acquired a piece of land adjacent to their wood at the top of Spindlewood and the grounds of Ionians Rugby Club.

The piece of land is destined to become a wildflower meadow. The society has received a donation of 400 native broadleaf trees from the Woodland Trust to plant along the borders.

A large group of members turned out to help with the tree planting. Varieties include hawthorn, blackthorn, hazel, rowan, silver birch and oak.

Little wonders are bin funders

Lifestyle team 3 Wonders of the World presented a cheque for £285 to the Town Council. The money has paid for a litter bin to be placed at the Welton Road end of the snicket which runs from Springfield Avenue alongside Brough School. The team worked hard through the Summer to raise the funds.

Pictured with the litter bin they helped to provide, Thomas Barratt, Tom Leeman and Salman Thoufeeq with Councillor Tony Galbraith, chair of the Village Environment Committee.

Coffee, cakes and chalky paint

Elloughton's new café The Village Paint Pot has a charming 'shabby chic' look which is down to their use of upcycled furniture, artistically painted with Annie Sloan Chalk Paint.

The café serves coffee, cakes and sandwiches to eat in or take away and is open every day, including weekends. Proprietor Viv Snow is also running Annie Sloan Chalk Paint workshops for anyone interested in upcycling furniture. Together with Maria Saleh who will demonstrate how to reupholster a chair, the next workshops are on 11th and 18th January, and 8th and 15th February. The £70 fee includes an old chair to upcycle and lunch is provided. Call 668120 for details.

For a chance to win lunch for two at The Village Paint Pot just answer this question: What sort of paint has been used to renovate the café furniture? For competition rules see back.

Tina Silvester and Holly Copsey of The Village Paint Pot.

Brough Eagles 10 years old

Brough Eagles Out of School Club celebrated its 10th Birthday with a magnificent fireworks display and a lovely birthday cake.

Brough School Christmas fair

Ho ho ho: Jack Fox receives an early Christmas present in Santa's grotto in the school's yurt.

Friends Of Brough School organised a fund raising Christmas Fair which raised a fabulous £940 for the school. There were various stalls, face painting, the choir sang carols and Santa Claus himself paid a visit.

Brand new look for Brantingham Park

Brantingham Park has embarked upon a refurbishment programme starting with its conferencing facilities.

The conference suite is versatile and offers a large room for up to 50 people which can be split into three smaller syndicate rooms. Rates are competitive whether on a daily delegate basis or simple room hire. WiFi is included and a refreshment and food menu can be tailored to choice. The main hall can accommodate conferencing/seminars for up to 250 delegates with free parking. Evening events can also be catered for, whether they be meetings, social, weddings or a family celebration. Call the office on 667342 to discuss requirements. For a chance to win two tickets for the Hull Ionians v Blackheath game on 15 February 2014 just answer the following question: Brantingham Park is the home of which rugby team? For competition rules see back page.

New youth club needs adult help

Adult volunteers are needed to help run a new local youth club with the aim of providing a safe environment for young people to socialise. The initiative headed up by two local teenage girls is supported by Phil Jackson of ERYC Youth & Family Support Services with a commitment of £2000 to the project. A number of possible venues have been identified but approaches have yet to be made. Further fund raising and adult volunteers are required. The two girls felt that people are drifting apart due to increasing use of social media and they would like the group to include social and sporting activities as well as providing support and fund raising efforts for other events within the community.

Hard work last summer paid off for local teams who won prize at the glittering Humberside Police Lifestyle Awards in November.

Big local winners were Team O'Mighty from Welton Primary School who have been campaigning for a permanent skate park in the locality. As well as carrying out research they collected signatures on a petition and raised funds to finance a visit by a mobile skate park to demonstrate local demand.

Adventurers: Team O'Mighty Thomas Faulkner, Harry Gunn-McLean, Thomas Mableson and Ethan Tasker won a PGL adventure holiday in Wales.

Why not make a meal of it at the Red Hawk?

The Red Hawk, named after the jet built at BAE Systems' Brough site, opened its doors again at the end of November following an extensive refurbishment.

Their new menu offers daily deals, a Sunday carvery and weekend breakfast buffet. Big eaters are invited to 'Man Up' for a big meal challenge with a certificate and badge at stake. There also button-popping, belt-busting grills on the menu as well as lighter meals of under 500 calories.

Managers Neil O'Connell and Emma O'Mally are very pleased with the new look Hawk and rightly so. It is light and airy and has a family atmosphere. The bar still features Sky Sports on the big screen and a pool table. There will be weekly quizzes and various charity events are planned.

To win a meal for two can you tell us where the pub's namesake was manufactured? For competition rules see back.

Ten years of Rainbow Lodge

Rainbow Lodge nursery on Elloughton Road celebrated its 10th Birthday by holding a party for the children. There was a bouncy castle, face painting and of course a huge birthday cake.

Cricketers get new chair and call for new members

Welton & Brough Cricket Club welcomed new Chairman Mike Savage to the Management Committee at their AGM in November. Previously Mike was chairman of Hull Cricket Club during their most successful period for decades. He outlined his ambitions for the development of the club both on and off the field.

Adam Boersman and Ashley Page First XI captain and vice-captain respectively, and Mark Allbones 2nd XI captain, were newly elected to lead the senior sides. Martin Spencer continues to lead the 3rd XI with the remit to encourage a blend of senior and junior players.

Indoor winter nets for seniors commences on Friday 24th January at Ciriis Academy, Pickering Road, Hull, from 7.30 till 9.00pm.

The club appeals to anyone who would care to volunteer in whatever capacity to undertake jobs large or small at the club. They will be made most welcome and should contact Brian Parker 0777 610 5328.

Police Band concert

This year the Humberside Police Band Christmas Concert saw a change of venue to the Methodist Church.

As well as performing old favorites there were some surprising new tunes like The Elephant and the Flea, a duet for tuba and piccolo, played by two members who have just become engaged after meeting through the band.

There was also a 'mash-up' of big band tunes such as Moonlight Serenade, and String of Pearls mixed with popular Christmas carols.

Humberside Police Band have raised over £20,000 in the last five years for charities and have also played in front of the Royal Family. All in all an excellent evening out.

Looking for a new challenge?

In Brough and Elloughton there are seven Rainbow, Brownie, Guide and Ranger units giving over 150 girls the chance to enjoy Guiding activities. Many more are waiting to join!

Guiding offers girls the chance to make new friends, learn new skills, have fun and enjoy adventurous activities. This includes craft sessions, games, quizzes, grass sledging, camping, archery, cooking and much more.

There are currently vacancies on some leadership teams. In order to continue giving these opportunities to local girls the unit is actively recruiting new volunteers. If you think you would enjoy these types of activities and could spare a couple of hours a week (term time) then please contact Sue Pritchard on 667985 or sue@pritcharda.karoo.co.uk, or Farrah Reay on 07972 714911 or farrahreay@hotmail.co.uk.

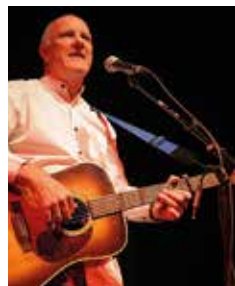

No previous involvement is necessary and full training is available. Perhaps you have fond memories of being a Brownie or Guide yourself?

Petuarria Players next play will be Calendar Girls, the stage play based on the blockbuster movie of the same name.

Annie persuades fellow WI members to pose 'nude' for a fund-raising calendar. News of the women's charitable venture spreads like wildfire and the press soon descends on the small village. Nightly performances run from 30th January to 1st February. Tickets are £6 – call 666908 or email petuarria@hotmail.co.uk.

HAM brings folk stars to Village Hall

Award winning entertainer Richard Digance will perform at the Village Hall on Saturday 8th March. One of the great folk performers of the 70s and 80s, Richard's songs, poems and stories appeal to all ages. In recent years he has built a further following through his appearances on Channel 4's Countdown.

Supporting act Fake Thackray features John Watterson paying tribute to comedic singer/songwriter Jake Thackray. For more information or to book, call Will Richardson on 665656.

To win two tickets kindly donated by event organiser Hunsley Acoustic Music answer the following question:

On which TV quiz show has Richard made regular appearances? For competition rules see panel right.
